

METRO PACIFIC INVESTMENTS CORPORATION
CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT AND ETHICS

Metro Pacific Investments Corporation (“MPIC”) is dedicated to doing business in accordance with the highest standards of ethics. MPIC, its directors, officers, and employees endeavor to promote a culture of good corporate governance by observing and maintaining its core business principles of accountability, integrity, fairness, and transparency in their relationships among themselves and with MPIC’s customers, suppliers, competitors, business partners, governments, regulators and the public.

This Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the “Code”) sets forth MPIC’s business principles and values which shall guide and govern all business relationships of MPIC, its directors, officers and employees, including their decisions and actions when performing their respective duties and responsibilities.

STANDARDS OF BUSINESS CONDUCT AND ETHICS

Below are the commitments of MPIC, its directors, officers and employees in their behavior and various business dealings.

A. COMPLIANCE

1. Engage in honest conduct and comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations, including prohibitions on insider trading, both in letter and spirit. Demands brought on by prevailing business conditions or perceived pressures are not excuses for violating any law, rules or regulations.
2. Personally adhere to the standards and restrictions imposed by those laws, rules and regulations.
3. Avoid the direct or indirect commission of bribery and corruption of representatives of governments or regulators to facilitate any transaction or gain any perceived or actual favor or advantage, excluding permissible additional payments for routine governmental actions allowed by all applicable laws and regulations.

B. COMPETITION AND FAIR DEALING

1. Avoid taking unfair advantage of anyone through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged information, misrepresentation of material facts, or any unfair dealing practice.
2. Deal fairly with MPIC's customers, service providers, suppliers, competitors and employees.

C. CONFIDENTIALITY OF INFORMATION AND PROPER USE OF PROPERTY

1. Maintain and safeguard the confidentiality of information entrusted by MPIC, its subsidiaries, affiliates, customers, business partners, or such other parties with whom MPIC relates, except when disclosure is authorized or legally mandated. Confidential information includes any non-public information that might be of use to competitors, or harmful to MPIC, its subsidiaries, affiliates, customers, business partners, or such other parties with whom MPIC relates, if disclosed.
2. Follow Company policy and applicable laws regarding business records retention. Ensure that records are not altered, concealed, destroyed or falsified to impede, obstruct or influence any investigation by, or proceeding before any official Company committee or body, governmental, regulatory or judicial body having jurisdiction.
3. Avoid trading any of MPIC's securities or those of its subsidiaries and affiliates using price sensitive information that is not normally available publicly, and obtained by reason of position, contact within, or other relationship with MPIC.
4. Use Company property and resources, including Company time, supplies and software, efficiently, responsibly and only for legitimate business purposes.
5. Protect the assets of MPIC from loss, damage, misuse or theft.

D. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST AND CORPORATE OPPORTUNITIES

1. Avoid any actual or apparent conflicts of interest between your private interest, including the private interest of a member of your family, and the interests of MPIC, unless you have obtained prior approval by the appropriate approving authorities as designated in applicable policies of MPIC. Any actual or apparent conflict of interest, and any material transaction or relationship that could reasonably be expected to give rise to a conflict of interest, should be disclosed to the Corporate Governance Office.
2. Avoid activities and interests that could significantly affect the objective or effective performance of duties and responsibilities in MPIC, including business interests or unauthorized employment outside MPIC, the receipt from and giving of gifts to persons or entities with whom MPIC relates, as well as insider dealing.

3. Be loyal to MPIC. As such, all business decisions and actions must be based on the best interest of MPIC and must not be motivated by personal considerations and other relationships, which may interfere with the exercise of independent judgment.
4. Advance MPIC's legitimate interests when the opportunity arises. Avoid competing with MPIC on a business opportunity or acquiring an interest adverse to that of MPIC's. Refrain from taking advantage of Company property, information or position, or opportunities arising from these, for personal gain, to compete with MPIC, or act against the best interest of MPIC. Directors, officers and employees who intend to make use of Company property or services in a manner not solely for the benefit of MPIC should obtain prior approval from appropriate approving authorities as designated in applicable policies of MPIC.
5. Refrain from the direct or indirect, grant or arrangements of loans to any director or officer, including loans granted or arranged by MPIC's subsidiaries and affiliates, unless such grant or arrangement is allowed by all applicable laws and regulations.

E. DISCLOSURE

1. Publicly disclose all material information (i.e., anything that could potentially affect share price, as well as other information), including earning results, corporate strategy, related party and off-balance sheet transactions.
2. To the extent relevant to your area of responsibility, comply with MPIC's disclosure controls and procedures and internal controls to ensure that (i) financial and non-financial information is properly recorded, processed, summarized and reported and (ii) MPIC's public reports and documents, including the reports that MPIC files with the Philippine Stock Exchange and the Securities and Exchange Commissions.
3. Each director or officer, to the extent appropriate within his or her area of responsibility, should consult with other Company officers and employees and take other appropriate steps regarding the above mentioned disclosures with the goal of making full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure.
4. Be familiar with the disclosure requirements applicable to MPIC as well as the business and financial operations of MPIC.

5. Do not knowingly misrepresent, or cause others to misrepresent, facts about MPIC to others, whether inside or outside MPIC, including to MPIC's independent auditors, governmental regulators and self-regulatory organizations.
6. Properly review and critically analyze proposed disclosure for accuracy and completeness (or, where appropriate, delegate this task to others).
7. Assess the effectiveness of the disclosure controls and procedures and internal controls and take corrective actions with regard to any identified weaknesses or deficiencies.

F. RISK MANAGEMENT

1. Restrict or minimize undertaking of risk so as not to jeopardize shareholder value.
2. Fully assess and manage risks involved in undertaking strategies, acquisitions, activities, products, services and other business endeavors of MPIC.

G. RELATIONS WITH SHAREHOLDERS AND INVESTORS

1. Adopt strategies, actions, decisions, and transactions based on increasing shareholder value.
2. Adopt international best practices of good corporate governance in the conduct of the business.
3. Keep business and accounting records which accurately reflect the financial position of the business and issue financial statements to ensure transparency of information.
4. Ensure an independent audit of MPIC's financial statements by external auditors selected by MPIC's Audit Committee.
5. Communicate truthfully and regularly business policies, achievements and prospects.

IMPLEMENTATION AND MONITORING OF THE CODE

1. Directors, officers, and employees of MPIC commit to comply with both the letter and spirit of this Code and MPIC endeavors to obtain the same commitment from its business partners. In this connection, directors and officers should explain to employees and business partners MPIC's principles and values set forth in this Code, and emphasize the importance of conducting themselves in accordance with the standards set by this Code in order to attain financial rewards for MPIC and to deter wrongdoing.

2. The Corporate Governance Office is responsible for applying the Code to specific situations in which questions or concerns may arise, and has the authority to interpret and decide on such issues arising from the implementation of the Code.
3. There shall be no waiver of any of the provisions of this Code in favor of any directors, officer, or employee, except when expressly granted by the Board of Directors or the Governance and Nomination Committee in the case of waivers for directors and officers or by the Corporate Governance Office in the case of waivers for employees. Any such waiver for any director or executive officer or any material amendment to the Code must be promptly disclosed to the shareholders of MPIC.
4. Any director, officer or employee is encouraged to contact the Corporate Governance Office when in doubt about the best course of action in a particular situation relating to a subject matter of the Code.
5. Any director, officer or employee who is aware of any existing or potential violation of the Code is required to notify the Corporate Governance Office promptly. The Corporate Governance Office shall take all action it considers appropriate to investigate any violations reported to it. If a violation has occurred, MPIC shall take such disciplinary or preventive action as it deems appropriate.
6. Disciplinary actions against violators include measures such as dismissal and/or the filing of appropriate civil and criminal actions. For purposes of this Code, “violators” are defined as a) persons who commit prohibited acts or who fail to implement prescribed acts when there is an obvious opportunity to do so; b) employees who knowingly abet such acts of commission or omission or who fail to report such acts that violate the Code; and c) persons of authority who fail to impose the necessary disciplinary measures against violators.
7. Retaliation or discrimination, whether direct or indirect and in any form, against any director, officer, or employee who reports, honestly and in good faith, any violation or perceived violation of this Code shall not be tolerated.
8. All policies, systems practice, orders, and similar official corporate issuances, whether existing or to be issued shall be revisited and revised as soon as practicable in order to be consistent with the letter and spirit of this Code. Pending the finalization of such amendments, the provisions of this Code shall prevail over any policies, systems practice, orders, and similar official corporate issuances, inconsistent with this Code.
9. This Code shall be reviewed at least once every two (2) years or such other frequency as may be determined by the Board of Directors and/or the Governance and Nomination Committee.
