PRESSRELEASE

MPIC and MPTC JOIN HANDS WITH SHAREPHIL TO EDUCATE INVESTORS, PROMOTE SHAREHOLDER ACTIVISM

Manila, Philippines, 13 June 2014 -- Metro Pacific Investments Corporation (MPIC), the largest infrastructure investment firm in the country, supports the advocacy of the Shareholders' Association of the Philippines (SharePHIL) to educate the public on the intricacies of investing.

As an active member of SharePHIL, MPIC believes that helping push the association's goals of promoting capital market development ensures the creation of a level field among shareholders and is consistent with the best practices in developed economies.

Formed in mid-2011, SharePHIL envisions to become a major catalyst in promoting the development of the capital market. It advocates sustained education to enlighten investors and shareholders of their rights, duties and responsibilities and to promote shareholder activism in a positive way.

As part of this on-going initiative, the SharePHIL Summit 2014, with the theme "Philippines: Your Investment Destination" will be participated by a prominent list of local executives and international government officials who will tackle a range of issues and topics focusing on investment opportunities in the country.

MPIC chairman Manuel V. Pangilinan, is among the guest speakers who will be presenting his views on attracting more foreign direct investments and instigate guiding principles in promoting the interest of minority shareholders.

The Ambassador of the United Kingdom to the Philippines, Asif Anwar Ahmad, will also give a talk on "Making the Philippines a more attractive investment destination and getting more investors to convert interest into real investments."

Foreign investments are important for economic growth. Without these investments the nation's growth would be much less. Key to attracting more investment is developing the local capital market, one of the areas that would be discussed in-depth at the Summit.

According to the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) foreign direct investments surged 20 percent to $3.86 billion in 2013 from $3.2 billion a year ago, boosted largely by strong investor confidence in the country's sound macroeconomic fundamentals.

Buoyed by this development, SharePHIL aims to further play a key role in sustaining the growth, in partnership with conglomerates such as MPIC and Metro Pacific Tollways Corporation (MPTC), MPIC's tollways management company.

MPTC plays a key role in developing the domestic market by building and expanding broader tollways network in the country. It aims to provide high quality public service through improved expressway systems -- the catalysts for economic development.

The highlight of the SharePHIL Summit 2014 is the panel discussion where top executives of leading companies such as Jose Ma. K Lim, president and CEO of MPIC, Edgar Chua, country chairman of Shell Philippines, Eduardo Francisco, president and CEO of BDO Capital & Investment Corp., and Guillermo Luz, private sector co-chairman of National Competitiveness Council Philippines (NCCP) and Tony Lopez of BizNews Asia will be presenting their views on how to transform the country as investment haven in the region. Other speakers include Atty. Lilia De Lima, Director-General of the Philippine Economic Zone Authority, Mr. Christopher Cheong, Vice President of Securities Investors Association Singapore (SIAS) and Director of SIAS Research Pte Ltd. The SharePHIL summit will be emceed by Mr. Rex C. Drilon II, Trustee, SharePHIL and Institute of Corporate Directors while the opening and closing remarks will be delivered by Ms. Evelyn R. Singson, Chair, SharePHIL President and Vice Chair, Philippine Hoteliers, Inc./Dusit Thani Manila and Atty. Francisco Ed Lim, President, SharePHIL and Senior Partner, Angara Abello Concepcion Regala & Cruz Law Offices (ACCRALAW).

The SharePHIL Summit 2014 will be held on Wednesday, 18 June 2014, at 1:30pm at the ballroom of Dusit Thani Hotel in Makati City.
