Clarification of News Report

We write with respect to the attached news article entitled "MPIC hospital unit drops IPO plan, mulls over share sale deal" posted in Manila Standard.net on May 02, 2019. The article reported in part that:

"Metro Pacific Hospital Holdings Inc., the hospital group of Metro Pacific Investments Corp., is no longer inclined to do an initial public offering and will instead pursue a strategic investor to raise money.

MPHHI president Augusto Palisoc said in a press briefing Thursday the company was keen doing a private transaction to implement the parent company's plan to sell a portion of its stake in the hospital business in order to raise fund to finance other projects.

'I think I have been successful in convincing them not to IPO the hospital space. I believe the course of action is geared more towards private transaction possibly with another investor,' said Palisoc said.

MPIC chief finance officer David Nicol confirmed the company was no longer interested in conducting an IPO. The company, he said, was open to all funding options.
