Clarification of News Report

We write with respect to the attached news article entitled "Pay P2-B fine, SC orders MWSS, Maynilad, Manila Water" posted philSTAR.com on August 7, 2019. The article reported in part that:

"MANILA, Philippines — The Supreme Court (SC) yesterday imposed massive fines on the government's Metropolitan Waterworks and Sewerage System (MWSS) and private water concessionaires Maynilad and Manila Water for noncompliance with the Clean Water Act.

Voting 14-0, the SC ordered MWSS and Maynilad to pay P921,464,184, with Manila Water and MWSS ordered to pay the same amount.

'Maynilad shall be jointly and severally liable with the MWSS for a total amount of P921,464,184 covering the period May 7, 2009 to date of promulgation,' SC spokesman Brian Keith Hosaka said.

'Manila Water Company Inc. shall be jointly and severally liable with MWSS for the same amount and period,' he added.

Hosaka explained the fine covers the period of May 7, 2009, five years after the Clean Water Act was enacted, up to yesterday when the decision was promulgated.

The SC ordered the MWSS and the two water concessionaires to pay within 15 days from receipt of the decision.

The high court clarified that even if the petitioners complied with the decision to pay the fine within 15 days, they would still be fined the initial amount of P322,102 per day subject to further 10 percent increase every two years as provided under Section 28 of the Clean Water Act, until full compliance with Section 8 of the law.

MWSS chief regulator Patrick Ty said he has no idea on the decision of alleged violation of the Clean Water Act of the two companies.

Please be informed that Maynilad Water Services, Inc. has not yet received a copy of the decision. However, Maynilad intends to file a motion for reconsideration within the 15-day period from the time it receives a copy of the decision.
