Clarification of News Report

We write with respect to the attached news article entitled "MPIC mulls pullout from NAIA Consortium" posted in philstar.com on March 09, 2020. The article reported in part that:

"MANILA, Philippines — A super consortium seeking to rehabilitate the Ninoy Aquino International Airport (NAIA) is at risk of losing one of its members amid pending issues faced by the group's proposal with the government.

Metro Pacific Investments Corp. (MPIC), one of the seven conglomerates comprising the so-called NAIA Consortium, is considering the possibility of pulling out from the group, its chairman Manuel V. Pangilinan said.

'It's going to be a tough one for us to join,' Pangilinan told reporters.

'We're thinking about it,' the businessman said, when asked if there is a possibility that MPIC would pull out from the NAIA Consortium.

Pangilinan declined to specify the reason, but cited the issue on real property taxes (RPT) as a concern.

Pangilinan said his group intends to make a decision as soon as possible as it would be unfair for the consortium to wait. 'They have the right to know, if we are in or out,' he said.

'This is just us. We can only speak for ourselves. We don't pretend to speak for the consortium,' Pangilinan said.

We confirm the information contained in the quoted news article and have since advised our consortium partners of our intent to withdraw from this project.

We hope to have clarified the quoted news article in the interest of the trading participants and the investing public.
