Clarification of News Report

We write with respect to the attached article entitled "MPIC keen on Shell assets, other businesses as it eyes expansion" posted in BusinessWorld (Online Edition) on November 11, 2021. In the said article it was reported in part that: "METRO PACIFIC Investments Corp. (MPIC) on Wednesday said it is exploring new opportunities as it expects 2022 to be a better year for the company amid prospects of economic recovery.

'We are interested in expansion,' MPIC President and Chief Executive Officer Jose Ma. K. Lim said at a virtual briefing, referring to the expansion of the company's fuel storage business.

'We are preparing to bid for Shell facilities,' he noted, adding that its role in such facilities will be 'very much like what we are doing in the Philippine Coastal (Storage and Pipeline Corp.),' which stores and moves liquid fuels.

The company is working to diversify its existing portfolio into unregulated businesses.

'We continue to look at logistics despite the fact that we are getting out of warehousing. We are looking at e-commerce and how we can position ourselves in that space, and we are looking at some agribusiness ventures and related infrastructure businesses in food deliveries and food storage,' Mr. Lim said.

Mr. Lim said the MPIC will also 'most likely' take a look at the remaining assets of real estate developer Landco Pacific Corp.

'They are experiencing very strong sales, actually their best financial results ever. [T]his is very encouraging for the board to hear..., [so] most likely we will take a look at its remaining assets and selectively decide which ones to pursue,' he noted.

We wish to clarify that we are interested to build storage facilities for Shell as opposed to acquiring facilities from them. We also confirm that the Company continues to look at various investment opportunities in order to create value for our stakeholders. However, no definite agreement requiring a disclosure has been signed to date. We will inform the Exchange of any disclosable transaction when it occurs.

We hope to have clarified the quoted news article in the interest of the trading participants and the investing public.
