Clarification of News Report

We write in response to your request for clarification with respect to the news articles posted in various online sites on March 8, 2023, particularly the news article entitled "MPIC spending P80b in 2023 to expand projects" posted in Manila Standard (Online Edition), which reported in part that:

"Infrastructure conglomerate Metro Pacific Investments Corp. said Wednesday it earmarked P80 billion for 2023 capital expenditures primarily to fund the expansion projects of power generation, toll road and water distribution businesses.

MPIC chief finance officer Chaye Revilla-Cabal said in a news briefing that while the bulk of this year's capital spending would be for core businesses, the conglomerate was also prepared to deepen its foothold in the agriculture sector where it allotted P8 billion to fund acquisitions.

Cabal said the agribusiness group was looking at two more acquisitions this year as the group continued to build up its portfolio.

'The vision is to make agriculture a core pillar of MPIC group over time and make it big as Maynilad or hospital group,' Cabal said.

We confirm that MPIC earmarked an aggregate of PhP 80 Billion across the group to fund its capital expenditures primarily to fund the expansion of power generation, toll road and water distribution businesses. We also confirm that MPIC allotted PhP 8 Billion to fund the expansion of its agriculture business, including potential acquisitions.
