Clarification of News Report

We write in response to your request for clarification in connection with the news article entitled "Metro Pacific acquires new hospital" posted in the BusinessWorld (Online Edition) on March 21, 2023, which reported in part that:

"METRO Pacific Health Corp. has acquired a hospital in Polomolok, South Cotabato through a newly formed subsidiary that will manage the facility.

In a press release on Monday, the healthcare unit of listed conglomerate Metro Pacific Investments Corp. (MPIC) said the acquisition of Howard Hubbard Memorial Hospital (HHMH) was done through its new unit Metro Matutum Hospital, Inc.

In October 2022, a business transfer agreement was conducted by the company to acquire the hospital. The move involves the sale of hospital assets by Dole Philippines, Inc.

....

Metro Matutum Hospital, which will own, operate and manage the hospital, is 67%-owned by Metro Pacific Health and 33%-owned by its subsidiary St. Elizabeth Hospital, Inc., owner of a Level 3 hospital in General Santos City.

...."

We confirm the information contained in the above-quoted news article. We also note that the value of the transaction is less than 0.05% of MPIC's total assets.

We trust that we have clarified the matter for the interest of the trading participants and the investing public.
