Clarification of News Report

We write with respect to the attached news article entitled "Metro Pacific to relaunch logistics arm" posted in Inquirer.net on March 13, 2023, which reported in part that:

"Manuel V. Pangilinan-led Metro Pacific Investments Corp. is looking at potential acquisitions in the P20-billion cold chain sector to support its budding agribusiness portfolio.

This was part of the infrastructure giant's broader plan to relaunch its logistics segment, which is being restructured after investments in large-scale warehousing did not pan out.

During a media briefing last week, Metro Pacific chief finance officer June Cheryl Cabal-Revilla said they were looking at logistics as a complementary business given its recent focus on agriculture and food security.

....

'We are looking at certain cold storage businesses,' she added.

Juan Victor Hernandez, CEO of Metro Pacific Agro Ventures Inc., said investments in cold storage might involve acquisitions but he did not provide details.

We confirm that the Company is interested in investing in the logistics sector, including the cold storage business. However, the Company has not entered into any definitive agreement regarding such investment. We will inform the Exchange and the investing public in the event the Company enters into any disclosable transaction.

We hope to have clarified the quoted news article in the interest of the trading participants and the investing public.
